

Our requirement for a bespoke stress toy was very specific in terms of matching the shape, colour and size of our product.

Stress Balls UK handled the job with ease, quickly creating visuals from just two photographs and the finished item is a dead ringer for the real product.

They delivered a difficult job on time and within budget and we will be using them again.